

Located in the northern part of South Africa, Limpopo has a fascination that mortal words fail to do justice. One of the distinct elements about it is the Northern Sotho or Sepedi language that is predominantly spoken by more than half of the population. Humanity, nature and all elements conspire to make this province unforgettable.

Accommodation
Must-have items